Arca Continental and Coca-Cola boost the dairy industry in Ecuador

- In the presence of the President of Ecuador, Lenín Moreno, Arca Continental and The Coca-Cola Company inaugurate the new Tonicorp dairy plant in Guayaquil, Ecuador, making it among the world's most modern
- US$100 million were invested in the new plant, doubling the production capacity of Tonicorp, reaching 150 million liters of dairy products per year; this is the largest investment in the Ecuadorian dairy sector

Guayaquil, June 29, 2017.- Tonicorp, the leading value-added dairy Company in Ecuador, inaugurated a new dairy production plant in Guayaquil, making it one of the most modern in Latin America.

The inauguration ceremony was chaired by the President of Ecuador, Lenín Moreno, together with directors of Arca Continental and The Coca-Cola Company, who jointly operate Tonicorp since 2014.

With an investment of USD$100 million, the Tonicorp Plant becomes one of the most important industrial projects in the country, allowing the company to double its production capacity, to reach up to 150 million dairy product liters per year.

“Consistent with our long-term vision for our businesses, we continue strengthening our investment strategy in the region’s high value-added dairy segment, solidifying our production capacity under the strictest quality, efficiency and sustainability standards,” stated Francisco Garza Egloff, Chief Executive Officer of Arca Continental.

“The strengthening of this business, reinforces Arca Continental’s commitment to Ecuador, as well as our constant effort to better serve our customers and consumers to collaborate in the integral development of the community”, he added.

The event was attended by State Ministers, local authorities, ambassadors, costumers and various players in Ecuador’s dairy industry, who participated in an inaugural tour throughout the plant.
